Date

1994

Primary Maker

Terry Albright

Medium

Tree bark, twigs, feathers, and mica on paper

Description

From the portfolio forward: "Terry Albright, a graduate of the Massachusetts College of Art, maintain[ed] a studio in Wayland. She exhibited in such venues as the Rose Art Museum at Brandeis University, Brockton's Fuller Art Museum, the DeCordova Museum in Lincoln and the Barbara Krakow Gallery. This series was inspired by Albright's hikes through the woods where she gathered twigs, barks, grasses, feathers and mica. Combined with paper that she has crumpled, torn and saturated with pigments, these ingredients become miniature imaginary landscapes."
