

The Republic Is Not Ungrateful, from "Harper's Weekly"

Date
published April 13, 1872

Primary Maker
Thomas Nast

Medium
Wood engraving on newsprint

Description
Captioned "It is not what is charged but what is proved that damages the party defendant. Any one may be accused of the most heinous offenses; the Saviour of mankind was not only arraigned but convicted; but what of it? Facts alone are decisive" from the "New York Tribune, March 13, 1872" typeset beneath title in black ink.

Dimensions
Composition: 10 9/16 x 9 in. (26.8 x 22.9 cm) Sheet: 16 5/8 x 11 9/16 in. (42.2 x 29.4 cm)