Description

"Ben Gest's work gives a new meaning to the expression "more than meets the eye." His work is as contemplative and quiet, as it is restless and emotionally charged. Gest modestly describes his work as "narratives of personal and simple everyday activities." But he goes through extensive steps to create these narratives from multiple separate photographs. The end results are large scale photographs that are alluring from a distance and unexpectedly detailed upon closer examination." (SOURCE: Light Work, Syracuse, NY)
